WELCOME!

Fergus Grady
Festival Director

Bienvenue, Nau mai, haere mai and welcome to the 2024 French Film Festival Aotearoa.

We're excited to add Whanganui, Blenheim and Rangiora to our Festival circuit this year and we plan on growing the Festival further into regional New Zealand in the coming years.

We're thrilled to present the Opening Night Film which is the blockbuster The Three Musketeers: D'Artagnan. We're also pleased to be able to bring you the second instalment of the smash-hit duo, The Three Musketeers: Milady.

We have a record year for Festival de Cannes favourites in the lineup including: Marguerite's Theorem, The Animal Kingdom, Bonnard, Pierre & Marthe, Abbé Pierre: A Century of Devotion, & Jeanne du Barry.

Our centrepiece films are our opportunity to promote standout films and we've included two Festival de Cannes premiere period pieces set in the 1800s that share the incredible actor Benoît Magimel. Rosalie & The Taste of Things are a great pairing that will not disappoint. The other two centrepiece films, The President's Wife and A Difficult Year, were crowd favourites at the Toronto International Film Festival and we expect equal enthusiasm here when they have their NZ premieres.

However you like your French cinema, whether that may be a 'comédie' or you 'désirer drama' we have you covered. Enjoy the festival and I hope to raise a glass with you at our opening soirées as we toast a "Grand Cru" year of French cinema.

Laurence Beau
Ambassador of France to New Zealand

Dear French cinema lovers,

The French Film Festival Aotearoa (FFFA) is back in 20 centres across New Zealand for its 18th edition.

It is both a pleasure and a privilege to see French cinema celebrated in New Zealand with such dedication. Last year, saw the highest attendance in its 17-year-history, thanks to all the cinemas who partnered across the country with the Artistic Director Fergus Grady, Simon Werry and all the French Film Festival Aotearoa Team to bring you the best of French cinema.

This year, they are once again offering us a generous and fresh movie line-up; featuring titles such as "Le Règne Animal" (The Animal Kingdom) by Thomas Cailley and "Rosalie" by Stéphanie di Giusto from the 2023 Cannes Festival.

Another must-see is "L'Abbé Pierre - Une vie de combats" (Abbé Pierre: A Century of Devotion) by Frédéric Tellier, a film that pays a tribute to Henri Grouès better known as Abbé Pierre. This remarkable man devoted his life to helping others, notably by founding the Emmaüs solidarity association.

I hope you'll be won over by this year's extraordinary line-up of French adventure, drama, action and comedy films. Pencil in the dates and see you in theatres!

FESTIVAL PATRON - FRANCESCA RUDKIN

I'm thrilled to be returning as Festival Patron for this year's French Film Festival Aotearoa.

The line-up this year is another fantastic slice of French cinema, and as always, picking some highlights is never easy! The below are all great starters for your must-see list, but enjoy your time at whatever you choose - it's bound to be a great watch.

THE TASTE OF THINGS

(La passion de Dodin Bouffant)

Two of the most famous French exports feature in this beautiful film: Juliette Binoche and French cuisine. The film won a main prize at Cannes Film Festival and for good reason, this is a must see.

A DIFFICULT YEAR

(Une année difficile)
The most successful French director duo ever: Éric Toledano & Olivier Nakache (The Intouchables) bring us their latest comedy which focuses on two down on their luck gentlemen who sign up for more than free beer & chips when they join a social protest movement.

IRIS AND THE MEN

(Iris et les hommes)
The reunion of Laure Calamy with director Caroline Vignal after the success of Antoinette in the Cévennes doesn't disappoint. As Iris nears her 50th birthday, she decides to enter the dangerous world of dating apps, despite having a partner who loves her. This is a comedy about reigniting desire in the modern age.

BONNARD, PIERRE & MARTHE

(Bonnard, Pierre et Marthe)

The lesser known protégé of Monet: Bonnard meets a so-called bankrupt Italian princess in this turbulent love story between the post-Impressionist painter and what will turn out to be his highly influential wife.

MARGUERITE'S THEOREM

(Le théorème de Marguerite)

A fascinating lens into the male dominated world of mathematics at one of France's top universities. Marguerite brilliantly transforms herself from top of the class perfect student to illicit mahjong gambler and late night party girl. This film achieves something that few of your teachers did in school: it makes maths interesting.

THE SITTING DUCK

(La Syndicaliste)

Based on the incredible true story of Maureen Kearney (played by Isabelle Huppert) which is so shocking it's a must see. After the success of The Godmother (FFFA 2021), the director reunites with Huppert to create a thriller about a whistleblower denouncing top secret dodgy deals.

THE EDGE OF THE BLADE

(Une affaire d'honneur)

This edge-of-your seat experience follows the legendary 19th century swordsman Clément Lacaze, who joins forces with the women's rights activist Marie-Rose Astié. Prepare yourself for a film that deftly weaves drama, romance and duels.

- CÉSAR WINNER: Best Production Design - Alexandre Dumas's thrilling and beloved classic novel The Three Musketeers has spawned multiple adaptations since its publication in 1844, but none have approached the scope and spectacle of this wildly entertaining, blockbuster two-film production from director Martin Bourboulon, who assembles an all-star cast for the first French cinematic treatment in over 30 years.

Set in the early 17th century kingdom of France, the opening instalment D'Artagnan follows a spirited young swordsman, Charles D'Artagnan (François Civil), on his journey from Gascony to Paris to join the King's elite Musketeers of the Guard. Along the way, he narrowly escapes death whilst heroically saving a woman from being kidnapped. In his efforts to enlist, D'Artagnan manages to offend the sensibilities of three of the most formidable Musketeers in the ranks, Athos (Vincent Cassel), Porthos (Pio Marmaï) and Aramis (Romain Duris) ... But D'Artagnan soon wins them over, and his dedication to help his newfound friends and serve King Louis XIII (Louis Garrel) will lead him not only into the path of the mysterious Milady de Winter (Eva Green) and the Queen's consort Constance (Lyna Khoudri), but the heart of a conspiracy where the future of the nation itself is at stake...

France's highest grossing film of 2023, Bourboulon's magnificent production (lavishly produced with a budget of over €70 million) is both respectful of its source but enriched with contemporary touches; the film is chock-full of humour, romance, palace intrigue and pulsepounding action.

The Three Musketeers: D'Artagnan unquestionably delivers as a smart and hugely involving big-screen experience for all ages. Audiences are assured of lining up for the thrilling conclusion, Milady within moments of the end credits.

THE PRESIDENT'S WIFE

BERNADETTE

COMEDY | 93 MINUTES | M

Directed by: Léa Domenach

Starring: Catherine Deneuve, Michel Vuillermoz, Sara Giraudeau

The legendary Catherine Deneuve plays the French icon Bernadette Chirac in this hilarious comedy based on actual events.

It's 1995, and Jacques Chirac has just been elected President of the French Republic. When Bernadette Chirac steps into the Elysée, she's ready for the recognition she deserves, having tirelessly stood by her husband's side on his journey to the presidency. Instead, she finds herself brushed off as old-fashioned, cold and sour-tempered.

With the help of her chief of staff, Bernard Niquet, Bernadette begins a campaign to restore her reputation and assert her role as first lady.

In her debut film, documentarian Léa Domenach skilfully blurs the lines between fact and fiction, presenting an engrossing portrait of an unexpected feminist icon.

You will find yourself smiling, laughing, and empathising with this delightful character, flawlessly personified by the wonderful Deneuve. The President's Wife is a must-see in this year's lineup!

A DIFFICULT YEAR

UNE ANNÉE DIFFICILE

COMEDY | 120 MINUTES | M

Directed by: Éric Toledano, Olivier Nakache

Starring: Pio Marmaï, Jonathan Cohen, Noémie Merlant, Mathieu Amalric

The wildly entertaining new comedy from irrepressible filmmaking duo Éric Toledano and Olivier Nakache (The Intouchables, C'est la vie), A Difficult Year stars Pio Marmaï and Jonathan Cohen as two compulsive spenders who get much more than they bargained for when they try and scam their way out of trouble.

Both in debt up to their necks, Albert (Marmaï) and Bruno (Cohen) have turned to a community worker (Mathieu Amalric) to try and help get a grip on their lives. However, at one of their group sessions, they stumble into an adjoining meeting room hosting a gathering of young social activists, led by a vivacious organiser (the fabulous Noémie Merlant). Attracted more by the free beer and chips than the group's struggle against consumerism and protection of the environment (whilst acknowledging the hugs are quite nice), Albert and Bruno join the movement without any particular conviction, but soon sense an opportunity... if they don't get arrested first.

Expertly poking fun at their characters while simultaneously honouring them, A Difficult Year delivers both laughs and pathos in spades, thanks to the directors' ongoing faith in humanity's desire to change. A Difficult Year is a 2024 Festival must-see.

Starring: Laure Calamy, Vincent Elbaz

After the smash-hit international success of Antoinette in the Cévennes (the most popular film in the history of the French Film Festival), writer/director Caroline Vignal and the fabulous Laure Calamy reunite for an hilarious comedy about reignited desire in the modern age.

"They're not". This is how Iris (Calamy) quietly answers her chiropractor when asked how things are going with her husband (Vincent Elbaz). The words slip from her mouth like an unformed realisation: how long has it been since they last made love?

Yet everything else is great: the couple love each other, they have two happy daughters, she runs a successful medical practice and has the best friends one could hope for...

But soon Iris will be turning 50. It is a stranger who whispers the seed of an idea: "Take a lover". So, she dares open Pandora's box, and hesitantly registers herself on a dating app. Immediately, men start to appear, as if it were raining...

- CÉSAR WINNER: Best Female Revelation, Ella Rumpf - Immerse yourself in a tale of obsession, genius, and self-discovery set within the world of elite academia in Marguerite's Theorem. César-winner Ella Rumpf is Marguerite, a brilliant young mathematician who refuses to let her status as the lone woman in her class hinder her pursuit of excellence. However, her world crumbles when a new student discovers a flaw in her thesis, and her supervisor dismisses her for being too emotional. Marguerite must now navigate the real world, unearthing new insights, gaining a fresh lease on life, and even exploring the possibility of romance.

- Dance Life

DRAMA | 97 MINUTES | M

Set within the Paris Opera Ballet School, one of France's most prestigious cultural institutions, this inspiring family-friendly film will resonate with anyone who has ever refused to compromise their dreams. 12-year-old ballet dancer Neneh discovers that her extraordinary natural talent may not be enough to win the approval of the school's harsh and discriminatory headmistress. Not only is Neneh from a socially disadvantaged background, but she is also black, challenging the longstanding dominance of white dancers in classical ballet. This glorious celebration of talent is a charming must-see for families and ballet enthusiasts of all ages.

COMEDY, DRAMA | 96 MINUTES | M

Parenting a teenager is hard enough, but for Antonia 'Toni' Livesi, being the sole parent of five teenagers while earning a living as a bar singer is nearly impossible. Despite a brief taste of fame twenty years ago with a hit song, Toni's life is very much an ordinary one, structured around kids and their squabbles, meals, laundry, housecleaning and work. As her two eldest children prepare to start university, she finds herself questioning her life and where she will go next. At 43, is there still time to try something new? Toni explores the dynamics of parenthood, family, and the delicate art of balancing work and life.
