KIA ORA KOUTOU AND BIENVENUE!

Fergus Grady
Festival Director

I'm delighted to welcome you to another exciting year for French cinema. Now screening in 24 towns and cities around Aotearoa, including Waiheke Island, Cambridge, Tākaka and Queenstown. It's great to have you join us!

Our programme of 23 fantastic titles range from epic blockbusters like The Count of Monte Cristo and Beating Hearts to a vibrant mix of comedies, dramas and romances. Captivating storytelling, powerful characters and thought-provoking scenarios are all on show, and we are pleased to be able to showcase new voices in French cinema.

We are profiling intriguing biopics honouring French cultural icons: Charles Aznavour (Monsieur Aznavour), Sarah Bernhardt (The Divine Sarah Bernhardt), Maurice Ravel (Bolero), and Antoine de Saint-Exupéry (Saint-Ex). Acclaimed Cannes titles My Brother's Band and Holy Cow promise unforgettable moments of cinema, and our comedies such as All Stirred Up! and Riviera Revenge are sure to entertain.

Enjoy this year's Festival, which we are proud to present during the 80th anniversary of diplomatic relations between France and New Zealand.

Vive le cinema!

Laurence Beau
Ambassador of France to New Zealand

Dear Lovers of French Cinema,

I am thrilled to announce this 19th French Film Festival Aotearoa! Taking place during the 80-year anniversary of establishing diplomatic relations between France and New Zealand, the best of France is brought to a cinema near you.

The festival has expanded impressively over the years. In 2024, it attracted more than 100,000 visitors and now reaches 24 cities across the country. This remarkable achievement would not be possible without the dedicated work and passionate commitment of Fergus Grady and Simon Werry, the entire French Film Festival team and the supportive network of Alliances Françaises.

Each year, the festival's lineup showcases exceptional cinematic talent. This year is no exception, featuring remarkable films such as Vingt Dieux/ Holy Cow by Louise Courvoisier, awarded during the Cannes Film Festival, The Count of Monte Cristo by Alexandre de La Patellière and Matthieu Delaporte, a compelling adaptation of Alexandre Dumas' timeless novel, captivating more than 9 million people in France, and Monsieur Aznavour by Mehdi Idir and Grand Corps Malade, retracing the famous French singer-songwriter's life.

This selection brilliantly demonstrates the depth, quality, and diversity of contemporary French cinema. I invite you to immerse yourself in this festival, which is a vibrant cultural bridge between France and New Zealand.

Bons films!

FESTIVAL PATRON - KATE RODGER

Mes amis! What an absolute honour to be named Patron of the Intrepid French Film Festival Aotearoa 2025! With such a stellar line-up, how on earth am I supposed to pick my favourites?

From the two incredible centrepiece films to "très dramatique" I've tried to whittle down my 8 favourites from 23 fantastic selections. I can honestly say all 23 films are worthy but here are the 8 I enjoyed the most.

JANE AUSTEN WRECKED MY LIFE (M)

(Jane Austen a gâché ma vie)

Clearly with a title like this it was the first film to grab my attention and it didn't disappoint!

THE COUNT OF MONTE CRISTO (M)

(Le Comte de Monte-Cristo)

Wow, this is such a lavish film that simply flies by. Gorgeous to look at and a great multi-layered plot, honestly I was perched on the edge of my seat from go to whoa - what a watch!

MY BROTHER'S BAND (M)

(En fanfare)

This is my prediction for the audience crowd pleaser of the Festival and features incredible performances along with a stonking soundtrack.

THE FRENCH JOB (M)

(Les règles de l'art)

I understand NZ audiences will be the first to see this twisty turner outside of France and how cool is that? I must have missed the news about the biggest French art heist back in 2010 so this was fresh to my eyes and ears and brilliantly told.

HOLY COW (M)

(Vingt dieux)

If you like cheese (WHO DOESN'T LIKE CHEESE??) then Holy Cow does not disappoint. Director Louise Courvoisier is one of the brightest French stars on the rise after winning two César Awards for this film, her very first feature. Keep an eye out for the Holy Cow cheese events screening in limited locations (nom nom).

HOW TO MAKE A KILLING (R16)

(Un ours dans le Jura)

Festival favourite actress Laure Calamy is back in this Coen-esque noir thriller set in the Jura mountains. The film is a little naughty (would it even be a French Film Festival if we didn't have a little naughty?!) but very entertaining.

BOLERO (PG)

(Bolero)

Out of all the biopics in the Festival Bolero was my favourite this year. Beautifully shot and featuring incredible music, one not to miss.

ALL STIRRED UP! (M)

(Tous toqués!)

Finally a French film featuring a famous chef who cooks up a storm. This isn't your standard foodie film but has enough laughs and romance to compliment the mouth-watering food on screen.

BIOGRAPHICAL DRAMA | 134 MINUTES | M Adult themes

Directed by: Mehdi Idir and Grand Corps Malade

Starring: Tahar Rahim, Bastien Bouillon, Marie-Julie Baup, Camille Moutawkil

You are invited to the Opening Night of Intrepid French Film Festival Aotearoa 2025, and the New Zealand premiere of Monsieur Aznavour!

For more information on our Opening Night events, check with your local cinema or visit frenchfilmfestival.co.nz

Just as Marion Cotillard was to La Vie en Rose, Golden Globe-nominated actor Tahar Rahim is to Monsieur Aznavour, transforming into the iconic singer-songwriter, Charles Aznavour, for this hugely entertaining biography of the man who beat all odds to not only become one of France's best-loved entertainers, but personified French culture to the English-speaking world.

Led by its star's astonishing performance and stunning vocal prowess, the emotional and lavishly mounted Monsieur Aznavour is a true tour de force as intimate as it is spectacular, serving as a triumphant reminder of the power and impact of music. It's a grand and unmissable cinema experience.

Jane Austen wrecked my life

JANE AUSTEN A GÂCHÉ MA VIE

COMEDY, ROMANCE | 98 MINUTES | M Offensive language

Directed by: Laura Piani

Starring: Camille Rutherford, Pablo Pauly, Charlie Anson, Liz Crowther

Agathe (Camille Rutherford, Anatomy of a Fall) is seemingly living the romantic comedy dream. Working in the famous Parisian bookshop "Shakespeare & Co", she shares an undeniable chemistry with her best friend/co-worker Félix (Pablo Pauly, Murder Party).

However, underneath the rosy facade, Agathe is a struggling romance author stuck living with her sister and battling a severe case of writer's block. Perpetually surrounded by stories of others' desires and adventures, she longs for a romance like the ones in her favourite novels.

Everything changes when Agathe is invited to a prestigious Jane Austen residency in England. Spending two weeks in a manor ripped directly from the pages of one of Austen's stories, Agathe becomes acquainted with the handsome (and haughty) Oliver (Charlie Anson, Downton Abbey), a distant relation of the author.

Now finding herself in a situation much like the books that inspire her, Agathe must decide between what she's always known, and something – or someone – new.

Direct from a sell out run at the Australian French Film Festival, this utterly charming story from Laura Piani is a delightful love letter to the iconic author whose works still shape our conversations on love today.

THE COUNT OF MONTECRISTO

LE COMTE DE MONTE CRISTO

ACTION, DRAMA | 178 MINUTES | M Violence

Directed by: Matthieu Delaporte and Alexandre de La Patellière

Starring: Pierre Niney, Anaïs Demoustier, Pierfrancesco Favino

Pierre Niney leads a stellar cast in Matthieu Delaporte and Alexandre de La Patellière's thrilling new adaptation of Alexandre Dumas' epic adventure The Count of Monte Cristo, the first French cinematic treatment of the iconic tale of romance and redemption in over fifty years.

Marseille, 1815. The dreams of principled young sailor Edmond Dantès (Niney) are about to come true; promoted to ship's captain, he can finally marry the love of his life, Mercédès (Anaïs Demoustier). But his success inspires jealousy... betrayed by his rivals, Dantès is denounced as a member of a pro-Napoleon conspiracy, and incarcerated without trial in an isolated prison.

After years of solitude, Dantès befriends the inmate in the adjacent cell, Abbé Faria (Pierfrancesco Favino), who reveals the location of a hidden treasure on the island of Monte Cristo. An extraordinary plan is hatched to exact revenge on the three men who wronged him: assuming multiple identities – "the Count of Monte Cristo" among them – Dantès will first court his enemies, and then seek retribution...

A true cultural phenomenon in France (where it stormed the box office with close to 10 million tickets sold), The Count of Monte Cristo delivers luxurious, spectacular big-screen entertainment, at once timeless and electrifyingly new.

MY BROTHER'S BAND

EN FANFARE

COMEDY, DRAMA | 103 MINUTES | M Offensive language

Directed by: Emmanuel Courcol

Starring: Benjamin Lavernhe, Pierre Lottin, Sarah Suco

A sensation at Cannes and one of France's biggest box office and audience favourites of the year (achieving over two million admissions and entry into the top five of 2024), writer/director Emmanuel Courcol's wildly entertaining new film follows two very different siblings separated by fate and reunited by their love of music.

Thibaut (the exceptional Benjamin Lavernhe, Delicious) is a beloved and internationally celebrated orchestra conductor who travels the globe. When a health crisis and subsequent DNA test inadvertently reveals he was adopted as an infant, Thibaut discovers the existence of a younger brother, Jimmy (rising star Pierre Lottin), who lives in more modest circumstances; he works in a school cafeteria, cares for his mother and plays the trombone in a community brass band. The pair seem to have little else in common other than a love of performance, but sensing his sibling's exceptional talent, Thibaut decides to remedy the injustice of fate and try to help nurture his brother's untapped gifts.

An eruptive crowd favourite wherever it has premiered (notably receiving the highest audience score in the 51-year history of the San Sebastian Film Festival), My Brother's Band is a rousing, feel-great trip to the cinema, expertly striking the perfect harmony between laughter and tears. Bring your family, your friends, and some tissues.

THE THREAD

LE FIL

DRAMA | 115 MINUTES | M Offensive language & sexual references

Directed by: Daniel Auteuil

Starring: Daniel Auteuil, Grégory Gadebois, Sidse Babbett Knudsen, Alice Belaïdi

One of France's most beloved and awarded actors, the remarkable Daniel Auteuil is also an accomplished writer and director in his own right, and the engrossing new legal thriller The Thread finds him once again in top form.

Auteuil stars as Jean Monier, a well-past his prime defence lawyer who – ever since discovering he was responsible for a killer being exonerated – now prefers to work as a prosecutor. But one evening Jean agrees to help his over-committed wife and fellow counsel Annie (Sidse Babbett Knudsen) by meeting with Nicolas Milik (Grégory Gadebois), a shell-shocked father of five who has just been arrested for the murder of his troubled wife.

Milik's predicament inexplicably touches Jean; the more he pieces together the events of the night in question, the more he becomes convinced of Milik's innocence. Soon Jean rediscovers his passion for his vocation, and becomes obsessed with exposing the killer.

Characterised by typically first-rate performances from its stellar cast, this pulled-from-the-headlines drama is a gripping exploration of guilt, conceit and the slippery nature of justice. A major word of mouth hit at the French box office in late 2024, The Thread packs a genuine punch, with a conclusion that lingers long after the credits have rolled.

BEATING HEARTS

L'AMOUR OUF

DRAMA, ROMANCE | 161 MINUTES | RATING TBC

Directed by: Gilles Lellouche

Starring: Adèle Exarchopoulos, François Civil, Mallory Wanecque, Malik Frikah

Adèle Exarchopoulos (Blue Is The Warmest Colour) and François Civil (The Three Musketeers) – arguably French cinema's brightest young talents – devour the screen in Gilles Lellouche's vibrant, genre-spanning romantic epic that follows a romance tested by social boundaries, betrayal and circumstances beyond all control.

Love makes one crazy. Just ask Clotaire (Civil) and Jackie (Exarchopoulos), who meet in their teens in their Northern France working-class neighbourhood in the 1980s. Despite their differences – she is a diligent student from the middle class, he a charming troublemaker with a complex family life – an intense and unmistakable connection is sparked.

But tragedy soon pulls them apart. A decade later, Clotaire tries desperately to win back his lost love. But has his chance passed?

Driven by a kinetic soundtrack by Jon Brion, indelible production design and all-star supporting cast, Beating Hearts pays homage to the US independent film wave of the 80s and early 90s but creates an impact truly of its own.

Delivering another massive, crowd-pleasing blockbuster result at the French box office with an extraordinary 5 million admissions, Lellouche reaches for the stars and rewards all who strap in for the ride.

Hot on the heels of its two wins at this year's César Awards, and over one million admissions in France, the Cannes Youth Prize winner Holy Cow is set to take this year's Festival by storm!

Set in France's picturesque Jura region, renowned for its Comté cheese, the film follows the carefree 18-year-old Totone. Accustomed to his teenage life of drinking and dancing, Totone suddenly finds himself the sole carer for his 7-year-old sister Claire (Luna Garret) after a devastating tragedy.

Struggling to make ends meet, Totone hatches a plan to follow in his family's cheesemaking footsteps, in the hope of winning a €30,000 Comté cheese prize. The only problem is, Totone knows nothing about making cheese... This heartfelt coming-of-age debut from Louise Courvoisier recently earned her the Best First Film César Award. The young cast (including Best Female Revelation César winner Maïwene Barthelemy) deliver touching performances that bring a raw authenticity to the film.

the stolen painting

LE TABLEAU VOLÉ

COMEDY, DRAMA | 91 MINUTES | M Offensive language

Directed by: Pascal Bonitzer

Starring: Alex Lutz, Léa Drucker, Nora Hamzawi, Louise Chevillotte, Alain Chamfort

Inspired by remarkable true events, acclaimed writer/director Pascal Bonitzer's sharp and hugely engrossing new dramedy The Stolen Painting follows a self-assured auctioneer whose professional and personal integrity is challenged by the discovery of a long-lost masterpiece.

Paris, present day. André Masson (César Award-winner Alex Lutz), a hotshot modern art appraiser at prestigious high-end auction house Scottie's, receives word that a painting by Egon Schiele may have been found in a young factory worker's home in the Alsatian city of Mulhouse.

Though highly sceptical, André travels to view the canvas with his ex-partner

Bettina (the superb Léa Drucker, Roxane) who is also an expert valuator, only to be convinced of its authenticity as a masterwork long-assumed destroyed by Nazi officials during WWII. For André, the ramifications of this once-in-a-lifetime find for his career and for his contentious relationship with his less-than-reliable intern Aurore (Louise Chevillotte), will prove both unexpected and transformative.

Skilfully brought to life by an array of endearing and duplicitous characters, The Stolen Painting is a thrilling exploration of the often cynical world of art dealing and collecting, where the jaw-dropping prices aren't always related to the rarity of the object or the desire of potential customers.

Miss Violet

LOUISE VIOLET

HISTORICAL DRAMA | 108 MINUTES | M Sexual violence references

From Éric Besnard (director of the previous Festival hits Delicious and A Great Friend), this historical drama offers an intimate look at rural life in the Auvergne-Rhône-Alpes region. In 1889, Parisian teacher Louise Violet (Alexandra Lamy), is sent to a small village to impose the free, compulsory and secular schooling of the French Republic. Met with a hostile reception from the locals, Louise will have to learn to speak their language. With rich period costuming and breathtaking vistas on display, Miss Violet is a compelling exploration of how tradition and progress can collide. Winner of the Special Jury Prize at l'Alpe d'Huez Film Festival 2025. In 2010, five paintings were stolen from the Musée d'Art Moderne de Paris. The five pieces were estimated to be worth more than 100 million euros. While the paintings have never been recovered, this outrageous comedy tells a frenetic and madcap tale of what could have happened to these famous works. Yonathan's monotonous life is turned upside down when he encounters Eric, a brash, smooth-talking con artist/fence. When Eric hires Jo, a skilled thief known as "The Spider Man of Paris", to steal the paintings, the three men's lives are intertwined in an uncontrollable spiral.

The brilliant therapist Doctor Béranger (Christian Clavier, Employee of the Month) has had a very successful career - with the exception of one client, the desperately needy Damien Leroy (Baptiste Lecaplain). In an attempt to finally reach a breakthrough on Damien's relentless clinginess, Béranger convinces him that true love will cure him. The plan initially seems to have worked, until on a family getaway Béranger's daughter reveals she has a new boyfriend... none other than Damien Leroy. Béranger's idyllic holiday has suddenly turned into his worst nightmare. This high-energy slapstick comedy will have you in stitches!
